"THE PRICE SHE PAID"

In Seven Parts

What girl has not dreamed of marriage with some Prince of Finance, with all her worldly worries drowned in a sea of luxury? In "The Price She Paid" such a girl fulfills her dream only to awaken to the bitter knowledge that the price paid for her is as nothing compared with the price she has to pay. See the picture and learn the lesson for your self.

Owing to the length of the show only the first three reels will be repeated.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"

Matinee and Night

BIRTH OF A NATION

Everybody interested in the possibilities of war finds in D. W. Griffiths spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation" which comes to the Dixie theatre for matinee and night, Wednesday, September 18, a thrilling association with the issues of today. The great crisis of 1861-'70 as pictured in the play have their lessons for the Americans of today. The North and the South in internecine struggle; the strategy of the Petersburg campaign and of Sherman's march to the Sea; Lee's surrender to Grant, and the aftermath of war in these reconstruction period—all these form a series of martial and political events that enchain the spectator's interest. Out of the terrible conflict a new nation, united by spiritual as well as geographical ties, was born. The fire of American patriotism never burned brighter than it burns today, and the play which shows the evolution from the past to the present will be gladly welcomed at its local presentations.
